Presbyterian Church in Canada ~ MISSION CAPSULE

CANADA: Presbytery of Peace River

Our gifts to Presbyterians Sharing help Rev. Joanne Kim and North Peace Territorial Ministry (NPTM) provide outreach to many communities in the North Peace region of Alberta, an area of approximately 47,000 square kilometres. Rev. Kim conducts two services every Sunday, traveling around 120 kilometres. The ministry is made up of Strang Presbyterian Church in Dixonville (the northernmost Presbyterian Church in Canada!) and The North Peace Korean Ministry in Peace River. One the surface, the two congregations are quite different – Strang is an aging congregation in a farming community, while the Korean congregation is made up of young business people and professionals. Yet both congregations seek to serve and love God and others, and are grateful for God’s grace and faithfulness. Let us pray for NPTM as it reaches out in God’s love to serve people in Peace River.
